
Thursday 27/11 at 19:00, meeting
International Organization for Migration at the Faculty of Social Studies in room n. U32

Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Migration in the Czech Republic - ask the director of IOM! What kind of rights the migrants have, what kind of misinformation is widely spread about migration? Space for your questions!

Friday 5/12 at 19:30 - movie screening

Let's watch some documentary or movie connected to Syria and discuss it with Syrians! This event will be organized by Syrians and opened for everybody.

SHARING DECEMBER

1/12- 19/12, Charity collection

On December 1st we will launch a charity call and collect clothes, shoes and other needed things for civilians in Syria. We will collect them in Be International office at Faculty of Social Studies office and deliver them via mosque in Brno to Vienna. Collection will be handed to Syrian Relief, an NGO which will distribute the items to Syrians in the refugee camps.

Thursday 18/12 and Friday 19/12,
Czech Christmas Time

We will organize a cooking lesson on December 18th and share and learn some typical Czech and Syrian recipes. The day after we will meet for traditional Czech Christmas dinner, practice typical Czech traditions, host Syrian musicians and throw a Christmas party.

WHAT TO DO NEXT JANUARY

Lets spend some nice time together, evaluate past activities and plan new ones ;-)

SYRECZECH

SYRECZECH symbolizes the connection of Syria and the Czech Republic.

Resembling a typical name of Czech cheese "sýreček", SYRECZECH stands for the series of events taking place from October 2014 to January 2015 in Brno, Czech Republic.

Happenings, cultural exchange, charity, screenings, discussions, Czech Christmas time, trips and more. Stay tuned!

Thank you very much, dear partners of SYRECZECH!

PROGRAM

At least two events every single month for the period of upcoming four months!

We started in October 2014 and we will finish in January 2015.

MEETING OCTOBER

On Friday 17/10 - cultural-gastronomic minifestival in Café Trojka

Syrian and Czech community met together for informal meeting, tasted traditional cuisine, listened to Arabic and Czech music and danced - simply enjoyed a cheerful meeting together.

Fundamental ideas and program of our Syrian-Czech project SYRECZECH was introduced to the visitors. Our Facebook page and web page were also showed and we gathered some ideas for the next activities. Great opening of SYRECZECH!

On Thursday 30/10 - happening in the streets Brno

International training course Streetgizer hosted 30 participants from 10 countries in Brno for a week. This project, organized by Be International, was dedicated to nonviolent street action.

Group of participants organized a happening in order to rise awareness about Czech-Syrian partnership. We met in front of the Faculty of Social Studies in Brno, danced together, tasted sýreček and informed public about future events.

BEHIND THE CURTAIN NOVEMBER

Thursday 13/11, discussion about civic society in Libya, Egypt and Syria

KLÁRA BEDNÁŘOVÁ (People in Need), BLOGGER FROM LIBYA (on Skype), JARDA VALŮCH (advisor and consultant for civic initiatives via video message) and SANDRA BITAR (Syria Civil Defense, on Skype) discuss the situation of civic society in Libya, Syria and Egypt.
